REGISTRATION AGREEMENT

I have read and understand the camp rules and regulations. I agree to follow all the rules while I am a camper at the Washington District Junior Camp.

Camper Signature: X_____

I, the parent/legal guardian of the registered camper, do hereby verify that I have read and understand the camp rules and regulations. I have explained them to the registered camper and he/she understands his/her need to comply and I understand he/she will be subject to disciplinary action in the event that the rules are disregarded or disobeyed. Furthermore, I accept full responsibility for any property the registered camper should deface or damage beyond normal wear and tear.

I, the parent/legal guardian of the above registered camper, authorize and permit camp directors of the Washinton District Junior Camp to seek neccessary medical attention for my child and, if I cannot be reached, make emergency medical decisions for the safety and in the best interest of my child.

~ CAMP RULES AND REGULATIONS ~

1. REGISTRATION AND ADMISSION: Registration must be complete and paid in full before admission to Junior Camp or participation in any activities, services and meals. Anyone wishing to visit the campground must obtain a visitors badge and pay any meal or overnight fees before attending any activities, services or meals. Registered campers are not permitted to leave the grounds before check-out without permission from both the Camp Director and Head Counselor or specific permission from the parent/guardian registering the child. 2. CABIN ASSIGNMENTS: Registered campers are not permitted inside any cabin (other than the one they have been assigined) without permission and in the presence of a resident of that cabin. Anyone else, including visitors that are not asssigned to the cabin are not permitted inside without permission from both the Camp Director and Head Counselor and in the presence of the assigned cabin's Counselor with the exception of a gender appropriate Head Counselor. Boys and girls and men and women are not permitted to enter a cabin assigned to the opposite gender for any reason with the exception of the Camp Director or Head Counselor in the event of an emergency or defacement of property has occured. Campers must recieve permission from both Counselors and the Head Counselor to change cabin assignments at any time. 3. DIRECTIVES FROM STAFF: Registered campers are to report directly to their assigned counselor and will comply with the directions of all counselors and staff. Should a conflict arise between a counselor and camper, it must be taken to the Head Counselor for consideration. Registered campers are to comply with all scheduled directives including activities, services, meals, showers, lights out and wake up and are to remain inside their assigned cabin with the lights turned off between the times of lights out and wake up. The parent and pastor of a camper found disregarding any directive will be notified. 4. RESPECT OF PROPERTY: Registered campers are expected to respect the property of those around them, the facilities of which we are renting and the natural surroundings thereof. Campers must also be responsible for their own property. Any camper found defacing anything that does not directly belong to him/her will be responsible for the value of the damage incurred. 5. RESPECT OF PERSONAL SPACE: No hitting, kicking, tackling, chasing, pushing, shoving, innapropriate touching, pinching, slapping, poking, grabbing, or hair pulling allowed. 6. PROHIBITED: Music in any form, electronics of any kind (including cell phones), weapons, tools, drugs, tobacco, alcohol and lighters are strictly prohibited and are not to be in the possession of any registered camper at any time during Junior Camp (cameras are okay). 7. MODESTY AND APPROPRIATE ATTIRE: Registered campers must dress modestly at all times. Tight fitting clothes, sleeveless shirts, see-through material, low-cut necklines, shorts or skirts above the knee and shirts showing a midrift are strictly prohibited. Girls are to wear skirts that are below the knee in length while standing and sitting and boys are to wear pants or shorts that are below the knee while standing and sitting. Girls are not allowed to wear pants or shorts. A slit in a skirt may not come above the knee while standing or sitting. Additionally, sleepwear and swimwear is not to be worn outside the cabin, shower area or swimming area without a fully enclosing robe or other covering unless it fulfills the guidelines for modest apparel as outlined above. Swimwear should be age appropriate and modest in essence. Also, no aggressive, worldly or innapropriate logos will be permitted to be worn.
